CONSTITUTION OF THE INDIAN YOUTH CONGRESS

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the Organisation shall be the 'Indian Youth Congress'.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTS

The object of the Youth Congress shall be to organise the youth of India, to train them in the duties and rights of citizenship, to enable them to make a positive and constructive contribution towards the realisation of the ideal of a secular democratic State, to the lofty principles taught by Mahatma Gandhi and to the establishment through peaceful means of a classless, democratic and socialist society based on equality of opportunity and of political, economic and social rights, as envisaged by the Indian National Congress.

The Youth Congress shall, therefore, endeavour :

- (a) to promote opportunities for the development of character, discipline, efficiency, knowledge and the spirit of service among its members and young people in general ;
- (b) to organise study circles, study classes, debates, study camps and research centres in order to promote understanding of culture, history and social, economic and political problems of our country ;
- (c) to impart training in the conduct of public work in close association with the Indian National Congress and the organisations formed by, associated with or recognised by the Congress ;

- (d) to promote opportunities for the youth to organise sports, physical culture clubs and other cultural and recreational activities ;
- (e) to assist the Indian National Congress to combat communalism and social and caste orthodoxy and to carry on constructive and social work ; and
- (f) to organise work squads and touring parties to tour the rural and urban areas of the country and to encourage youth to cooperate with farm and factory labour and to take up such all other activities that are relevant and incidental to the objects of the Youth Congress.
